SOCIETY FOR SEX THERAPY AND RESEARCH

SSTAR 2007 FALL CLINICAL MEETING

Jointly Sponsored by
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG)

The Penn Club of New York
Friday, September 7, 2007

The SSTAR 2007 Fall Clinical Meeting will be held Friday, September 7, 2007, at the Penn Club, 30 West 44th Street, New York, NY. This meeting is designed for practicing sex therapists, psychologists, physicians, advanced practice nurses, marriage and family therapists, clinical social workers, other health care professionals, and researchers seeking state-of-the-art information on the rapidly evolving field of human sexuality. Registration and continental breakfast will begin at 8:30 am. The meeting will begin with a welcome from the President of SSTAR, Bonnie R. Saks, MD at 8:50 am.

The primary goal of the meeting is to serve as a multidisciplinary forum in which to discuss the clinical assessment and management, ethical and societal issues, and outcome of sex therapy interventions in clinical cases.

The morning case, Putting Humpty Together Again: A Case of Marital & Sexual Dysfunction in the Context of Multiple Medical Diagnoses at Mid-Life, by Case Presenter, Lisa M. Anllo, PhD, and Case Discussant, Stanley E. Althof, PhD will begin at 9:00 am.

After attending this presentation, the participants will be able to:

1. Describe at least two therapeutic pitfalls in managing a case of sexual and relationship dysfunction that involves chronic medical illness.
2. Identify at least two advantages of individual therapy for the identified patient and their partner vs. couples therapy in addressing sexual and relationship dysfunction associated with chronic medical illness.
3. Evaluate some of the latest evidence regarding the risk of erectile dysfunction in patients receiving radiation treatment for prostate cancer, and the safety of testosterone replacement therapy after prostate cancer.

Lunch at the Penn Club will be served at 12:25 pm. The afternoon case, Mating in Captivity: Reconciling Eroticism and Desire by Case Presenter, Esther Perel, MA, LMFT, and Case Discussants, Joanna Gould Whitcup, PhD, Carolyn Hillman, MSW, and Pat M. Rubin, MEd will follow lunch at 1:30 pm.

After attending this presentation, the participants will be able to:

1. Invert the traditional therapeutic priorities thereby allowing the sexual relationship to serve as a lens into the couple's interpersonal dynamics.
2. Map ways for couples to draw pleasure from the hidden and the mysterious while respecting their needs for safety and stability.
3. Learn a cross-cultural perspective to help couples find alternate paths on the erotic landscape.
